

New chairman for FICCI TN Council

NT Bureau

Chennai, Dec 25:

Ar Rm Arun, chairman, Valingro Group, Chennai, has been appointed the new chairman of FICCI-Tamilnadu State Council for the year 2017.

Ar Rm Arun

A press note here said Arun's vision is to organise structured programmes and events facilitating the growth of the industry especially working closely with the government of Tamilnadu. He is also keen on expansion of the membership base, prominent visibility and involvement of the trade bodies in the State.

He also said that the focus would be to enhance involvement of industries through supporting and representing their issues to competent authorities through firm representations.